HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these Bye-laws shall be eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh.

(1.) When a party not exceeding two grown-up persons, and without any luggage other than a carpet-bag or the like, enters a carriage at a stance, or when driving along disengaged, they shall be driven half a mile for 6d.; and if they return, they shall pay the same fare. The driver shall draw up to either side of the street when called; and if detained more than five minutes before starting, he shall be entitled to 6d. for waiting. N.B.—This rule shall not apply to fares from railway stations.

(2.) The fare from the division of Queen Street between Frederick and Hanover Streets is the same as from W. Queen Street stance; the fare from Frederick Street (North) and from the part of East Princes Street stance in George Street west of Frederick Street is the same as from George Street; and the fare from the Lyceum Theatre is the same as from the Caledonian Railway stance. Excepting these and the 6d. Fare, the fares by distance are shown in the Table of Cab Fares. The charges in the table shall include going from the stance or stable to the hirer's residence, and waiting ten minutes. But if the carriage be detained, before starting, more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour, or part thereof, after the expiry of the ten minutes, shall be allowed; and if the place where the hirer is to be taken up be beyond a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, there shall be a charge of 6d. for such distance.

(3.) There shall be no charge for waiting while a hackney carriage is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes; and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of section (2) of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

(4.) The fare to any place not mentioned in the table shall be the same as that to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

(5.) When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare shall be 1s. for any distance not exceeding a mile and a half for one or two passengers; 1s. for any distance not exceeding one mile for three or four passengers; and 6d. for every additional half-mile, or part thereof, for any number of passengers not exceeding four.

(6.) Half fare returning with the party, excepting the half-mile drive.

(7.) When parties return (which they shall have the option of doing), and the fare going is 1s., the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; when 1s. 6d., fifteen minutes; when 2s. and upwards, twenty minutes. If the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every twenty minutes or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

(8.) When a carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that.—Waiting as in section (2).

FARES BY TIME.

It shall be in the option of the hirer to pay by time for a carriage employed within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous. The charge in such cases shall be 2s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour or part thereof.

For an AIRING into the country within eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning, the rate shall be 3s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 1s. for every twenty minutes or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when out an airing shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare in the proportion of 3s. for every six miles so travelled. A drive round the Queen's Drive shall be at the rate of 3s. per hour.

FARES BY DISTANCE OR BY TIME.

(1.) If there be more than four adults driven, a charge of 6d. extra shall be made for each additional adult, or for each two children above six years of age, and under twelve. No additional charge for one child above six to twelve, or children under six years.

(2.) Double fare—from twelve o'clock at night till seven o'clock morning. 1. When the hiring shall be by time the charge shall be double fare. 2. When the hiring shall be by distance, and the number of passengers shall not exceed four, the charge shall be double the fare as for one or two passengers. 3. For waiting, double charge shall be allowed. 4. The double charge shall not apply to luggage.

(3.) On Sunday the fares for such carriages as shall have been previously ordered or engaged, or hired elsewhere than on the public streets or stances, shall be fare and a half.

(4.) The above fares are for one-horse carriages, and there shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

(5.) No owner or driver shall demand or receive more than the regular fare.

(6.) Owners or drivers may agree to drive at lower fares than those fixed. In that case, should they demand more than the fare agreed on, they shall be liable as for an overcharge.

LUGGAGE.

For luggage exceeding 100 lbs. in weight there shall be a charge of 6d. extra. But there shall be no charge for luggage under that weight. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading in all cases when required.

FARES MAY BE WITHHELD.

Any party shall be entitled to withhold payment of the fare—

1. When the name and number are not painted outside, or when there is no plate inside, in terms of Articles 2 and 3 of the bye-laws.
2. When the reference ticket is not given on demand.

POST CARDS.

Official post cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, or reply cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion, can be bought at every Post Office.

The address, and the sender's name and address, but nothing else, may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the front. Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label not exceeding 2 inches long and ¾ inch broad, bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery. An inland post card is transmissible for abroad if the additional postage is made by postage stamps. Such post cards, if not posted in accordance with the above regulations, are treated as insufficiently paid letters.

A private card becomes a post card when it has a halfpenny stamp affixed to its face. It must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the official post cards. The maximum size must correspond as nearly as may be to the size of the inland official card, and the minimum size must not be less than 3¼ × 2¼ inches. The rules stated in the preceding paragraph also apply to private cards with one exception, viz. that which relates to cutting and altering. The essential feature of the private post card is that it must be prepaid. A private card without a stamp is not a card, but a letter. For instance, an unpaid private card would be charged 2d.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, post cards may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery (unless paid for and posted as late letters).

Inland.—Post cards are sold at the rate of 5½d. (thin) and 6d. (thick) for every 10; reply cards, at double rates.

Foreign.—Post cards, 1d. each (or inland post cards paid the foreign rate), and reply post cards, 2d. each, may be sent to any of the countries in the Postal Union.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on a book packet of the same weight—viz. one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of 2 oz.

A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is charged double postage, and if posted insufficiently paid with double the deficiency.

Any publication fulfilling the following conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

The conditions are as follows:—

The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to 'Tables of Contents' and 'Indexes.'

A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or a piece or pieces of paper put together at some one part of the newspapers, whether gummed or stitched up with the newspapers or not; or it must wholly or in part consist of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper. It must in every case be published with the newspaper, and have the title and date printed at the top of every page; except that any page, sheet, or side on which engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the papers appear, need not be dated.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers may be posted either with or without a cover, but entirely open at both ends, and folded so as to admit of easy examination.

A registered newspaper, or a packet of registered newspapers, must not contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it, otherwise such will be charged as a letter, if under 8 oz.; and if over that weight is sent by Parcel Post and charged 1d. of a fine, and any deficiency in the Parcel Post rate.

All publications not so registered are subject to the rates and regulations of the Book Post.

A packet must not exceed 14 lbs. in weight, or exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

BOOK POST.

The prepaid postage of a book packet is one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of 2 oz. If posted unpaid the charge is double rate; if partly paid, double the deficiency.

Any of the documents mentioned under the head (f) may be, in the form of a letter, or may be incorporated with a circular letter as defined under the head (i), provided that nothing appears in writing except the particulars allowed to appear in writing in circulars (i), or in documents of class (f).

In the above definition—

Expressions referring to print or printing shall be taken to refer to any species of type-printing easy to recognise, and to include lithography, hand-stamping, or any mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter, and easy to recognise, but not to include type-writing or imitations thereof.

Circulars which are in other respects permissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the type-writer, or are produced by means of the mimeograph or other mechanical process from type-written originals, will nevertheless be admitted to the privilege of the book rate, provided that they are posted by being handed in at the counter of some Head or Branch Post Office, that special attention is called to their nature, and that at least twenty copies precisely identical are posted at the same time.

Expressions referring to writing shall be taken to include type-writing or any mechanical or other process ordinarily used to produce a single document.

2. Book packets should be posted either without covers (in which case they must not be fastened in any way) or in unfastened envelopes, or in covers which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination without breaking any seal or tearing any paper or separating any adhering surfaces. If anything is written or printed on the inside of the covers, the covers must be left unfastened. It is not forbidden to tie the ends of a book packet with string, but the string should be easy to unfasten.

3. No book packet may exceed 5 lbs. in weight, 18 in. in length, 9 in width, or 6 in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office.

4. A book packet, in the case of which either rule 1 or rule 2 is infringed, is chargeable, if under 8 oz. in weight, as a letter packet, and if over 8 oz. it is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged a fine of 1d., in addition to any deficient parcel postage. When rule 3 is infringed the packet is in all cases transferred to the Parcel Post.

5. When, owing to an unusually heavy influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, book packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN BOOK POST.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

(a) Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), way bills, bills of lading, invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of insurance and other public companies, all kinds of manuscript music, the manuscript of books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

(b) Printed Papers, including newspapers, periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs, pictures, drawings, papers impressed for the use of the blind, or cardboard drawing, models stamped in relief, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, autographed, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or cardboard by means of printing, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press and the type-writer, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter. Postage stamps, whether obliterated or not, and all printed articles constituting the sign of a monetary value, are, however, excluded from transmission by Book Post to countries in the Postal Union. On printed visiting cards the address or title of the sender, or conventional initials, such as 'p. p. c.' may be written, and on printed circulars manuscript corrections and insertions may be made as to names of commercial travellers, dates of their journey, dates of departure of ships, names of parties invited to meetings, and the place, date, and object of the meetings. Printers' proofs may be corrected in manuscript, as may also figures in prices current, stock and share lists, etc. Books, papers, music, photographs, and engravings may have a dedication inscribed on them, and the invoice relating to them may be enclosed.

These two classes are subject to the same rates of postage, except that the minimum rate for commercial papers, however small the weight, is 2½ d. in every case. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet, the whole packet is treated as commercial papers.

Commercial and printed papers may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or other wise), or in an ordinary letter envelope left wholly unfastened, or in a cover entirely open at both ends so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string which can be easily unfastened.

All books and printed matter imported into the United States through the Post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of that value, except periodicals and newspapers already exempt from duty, photographs, and printed papers other than books, received in such small quantities as to suggest that they are for personal use and not for sale.

An internal tax of two kreuzer, which is not a postal charge, is made by the Austro-Hungarian Government on all newspapers reaching the empire from other countries.

Books and periodicals addressed to the U.S. of Colombia are liable to customs duties, unless intended for the personal use of the addressee. Books, whether bound or sewn, addressed to Uruguay, are liable to customs duties unless the whole value of those sent to one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4).

Bound books sent to Portugal by post are subject to Customs duty. The wrapper should bear an indication of the nature of the contents, and the words 'a soumettre a la douane.' Unless these conditions are complied with, the books will be liable on delivery to a fine in addition to the duty.

The limits of size for packets for the British Colonies or Possessions or to non-Union countries or colonies are 24 x 12 x 12 inches; but to foreign countries in the Postal Union the length is limited to 18 in. If in the form of a roll the limits of size in either case are 30 x 4 in. To British Colonies or Possessions, and non-Union countries or colonies, the limits of weight are 5 lb.; and for foreign countries in the Postal Union, 4 lb.

INLAND PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

Trade patterns and samples of merchandise may be sent at the following rates of postage:—

For 4 oz.,	1d.
„ 4 oz. to 6 oz.,	1½d.
„ 6 oz. to 8 oz.,	2d.

No packet may exceed 8 oz. in weight. The limits of dimensions are 12 in. by 8 in. by 4 in. If either of these conditions be infringed, the packet will not be forwarded but returned to the sender.

If posted wholly unpaid, it will be charged double postage; and if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

The packet must solely consist of bond fide trade patterns and samples of merchandise, and packets may consist only of such patterns and samples, with or without any documents, which can be sent by Book Post. No article sent for sale, or in execution of an order, or otherwise than as a trade pattern or sample, is admissible; and if any such packet be posted prepaid at the pattern-rate only, it will be charged with double the deficient postage, at the letter-rate, together with a fine of 6d.

Patterns and samples must be sent in wrappers (marked 'Pattern Post' or 'Sample Post') open at both ends, or in unfastened envelopes, and must be so packed that they may be easily withdrawn for examination; but samples of seeds, flour, drugs, and such-like articles, which cannot be sent in open wrappers, may be enclosed in boxes (in such a way as to admit of easy examination) or in bags of linen or other material, tied at the neck. Closed bags, even if transparent, will not be allowed. In all cases where the requirements in regard to the mode of enclosure are not

Liquids, glass, china, crockery, eggs, fruit, fish, meat, butter, etc., which may not be sent by Letter Post, may be sent by Parcel Post, if packed with special care. Liquids or semi-liquids, such as jellies, pickles, paint, varnish, etc., must be put into bottles or cases securely stoppered. Any parcel containing eggs, or fragile, or perishable contents, should be conspicuously marked 'Eggs,' or 'Fragile—with care,' or 'Perishable.'

Parcels for post will be collected from firms or private persons when the number to be called for amounts to 10 a day or 50 per week.

If a packet bearing the words 'Parcel Post' is not posted in accordance with the regulations, it is treated as a letter or book packet, if it is fully prepaid at the rate proper to either, and is otherwise in accordance with the letter or book post regulations; but if not fully prepaid at the letter or book post rate, it will be treated as a parcel, and charged on delivery with a fine of 1d., together with the deficient postage, if any, at the Parcel rate.

A customs declaration must be made in the case of parcels for the Channel Islands.

To offices where letters may be addressed 'to be called for,' parcels may also be so addressed; such parcels are liable to a demurrage charge of 1d. a day after one clear day. The maximum charge is 1s. 5d. Such parcels are kept for three weeks. If at the end of one week the parcel is not claimed, and it bears the name and address of the sender on the outside, a notice is posted to the sender intimating that the parcel has not been called for. No demurrage is charged on parcels addressed to persons beyond the town free delivery or on board ship.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PARCEL POST.

For countries, dimensions, and weight, see p. 831.

The rules as to prepayment, method of address, and posting are the same as with inland parcels.

Customs Declaration and Duties.—Parcels are liable to customs regulations and duties, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form provided for the purpose—an accurate statement of the contents and value and other particulars. The declaration form should, if possible, be filled up in both English and French. Customs duties will be collected on delivery. In addition to customs duties, a charge of 6d. per parcel for stamp duty, clearance, etc., is levied on all dutiable parcels entering Cape Colony and Natal; and 1s. to British Bechuanaland, Bechuanaland Protectorate, Mashonaland, the Orange Free States, and Transvaal. To Mexico a charge of 5 cents is made for a parcel not exceeding 1 lb., and 1 cent for every 4 oz. on a parcel exceeding 1 lb. In most European countries, and some others, a fee of 2½d. per parcel is leviable for delivery and Customs formalities.

Parcels for Aden, Ascension, Egypt, India, St. Helena, South Africa, and Zanzibar must not exceed £50 in value.

Parcels for Roumania must be packed in wood, tin, canvas, or other similar material, and not merely in paper or cardboard.

Delivery of Parcels.—In many Colonies and foreign countries parcels are not, like letters, delivered at the residences of the addressees. Notice of the arrival of a parcel is sent to the addressee, who must then claim the parcel at the Post Office, Railway Station, or Custom House where it is lying.

In Belgium, France, and Spain parcels are delivered by the Railway Companies, and not by the Post Office; and parcels intended to be called for should not be addressed to a Poste Restante in those countries, but to a Railway Station (en gare).

Insurance of Colonial Parcels.—Parcels to or from certain British Colonies and Possessions are accepted for insurance. The names of the places may be learned at any Post Office.

The fee for insurance is 5d. for £12, and no parcel can be insured for more than £50. No compensation, either for loss or damage, will be given in respect of any article which may not be sent by the Inland Parcel Post, or anything which, though admissible by the Inland Post is inadmissible under the Colonial Parcel Post. Further, no compensation will be given in respect of a parcel in which money is enclosed.

Re-direction and Return of Parcels.—Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom will be treated and surcharged under the regulations which govern the treatment and surcharge of re-directed parcels by the Inland Parcel Post.

If a parcel cannot be delivered as addressed, or is refused, the sender, if his address be given on the parcel or on the forms which accompany the parcel, is communicated with by the Post Office as to the manner in which the parcel shall be disposed of.

If returned or re-directed from one country to another, the parcel will be charged a full rate of postage.

Parcels redirected to this country from France, Belgium, Holland, Spain, and other countries are, in addition to the postage, charged the customs duty leviable in the country from which they are re-directed.

A parcel should be properly packed and sealed by the sender, so that it cannot be opened without breaking the seal.

EXPRESS DELIVERY.

Letters and parcels are accepted at the General Post Office and the Branch and Sub Telegraph Delivering Offices, to be forwarded immediately by messenger direct to any part of the Edinburgh and Leith postal area. Fees—The fee for delivery in Edinburgh or Leith of a letter or parcel 1 lb. in weight, is 3d. per mile or part thereof, and 1½d. for each additional lb. beyond the first lb.; and if the sender desires a special conveyance, such must be paid for in addition. If the distance exceeds two miles, and a public conveyance is not available in both directions, the actual cost of a special conveyance must be paid also. Every packet must be handed over the counter, and the words 'Express Delivery' written above the address, on the left-hand corner. Hours of Delivery—8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Replies and Returns—When a reply or further service is required by the sender, the words 'Wait Reply' or 'Further Service' should be written by the sender above the address of the letter, and the messenger is allowed to wait 10 minutes free of charge; but after that time 2d. is charged for every quarter of an hour or part thereof. When a packet on a return or further service is taken to an address on the messenger's homeward route, or within half a mile of the Post Office from which the messenger originally started from, half only of the mileage rate is charged.

Single Letters conveyed by Railway.—Railway letters not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, for transmission by train or steamship, may be handed in to any post office from which express delivery is made, for immediate conveyance to the railway stations, at the above rates.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTER BY RAILWAY.

Certain Railway Companies have entered into agreement with the Postmaster-General to accept and convey by the next available train or steam-boat single inland post letters, not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address or to be transferred there to the nearest post office letter box for delivery by postman. The letter must be taken to the parcel booking office, and when that office is shut to the passenger booking office. The charge for such a letter is 3d.—postage stamp 1d., and 2d in cash to the Railway Company.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES AND PETITIONS TO THE QUEEN AND PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to the Queen, forwarded direct or through a member of either House of Parliament, are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, sent without covers, are in covers open at the ends.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent in open covers, having the words 'Parliamentary Proceedings' written or printed thereon, are allowed to exceed the limits of size and weight for book packets, and the rate of postage, whether prepaid or not, is the same as the book post.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES.

Parliamentary Notices may be posted at any Money Order Post Office in the United Kingdom:—

The words 'Parliamentary Notice' must be written or printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the Solicitor issuing such notice should also be printed or written on the face of the letter.

Notices which, by the standing orders of either House of Parliament, are required to be served on or before the 15th December, must be posted not later than the 12th December, and on the 11th if the 12th be a Sunday; and those notices which, by the same orders, may be served after the 15th, must be posted not later than the 18th, and on the 17th if the 18th be a Sunday.

The postage (letter-rate) chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of 2d., must be prepaid by stamps.

The notices must be posted at the Post Office counter, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses; the notices being arranged in the order of the list; and if they correspond with the addresses, the sheets will be signed and stamped, and one of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post Office, London.

The hours for receiving such notices are the same as for the registration of ordinary letters, unless they be presented at such a time as to interfere with the other duties of the office; in which case the postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same, provided that, when the notices are to be served on or before the 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th. Senders should, if possible, arrange on the previous day with the postmaster as to the most convenient time for posting.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS AND SEAMEN IN H.M. SERVICE.

Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, school-mistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in

H.M. Navy, whether serving on sea or land, in British possession or foreign country, the Cap Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada can send and receive prepaid letters, not exceeding half an ounce, for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus, the postage to the under-mentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows:—

To or from—	s. d.
*Australia, *Ceylon, *Hong Kong, *India, etc., via Italy , Chili, Peru, or any other place in the South Pacific, via Panama ,	0 2
Mauritius, by French packet	0 2

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not given it will be returned to the writer.

The person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer in the army, or assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter in the navy, the privilege not extending to these officers.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs, the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD MAIL PACKETS.

Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the packets for America calling at Queenstown, the packets for Canada calling at Londonderry, the Royal mail packets for Brazil, etc., calling at

* If posted in time to reach London on Thursday morning, the postage is 1d. only.

Lisbon, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with mails for Egypt, India, Australia, China, etc., and the Orient packets from Naples with mails for Australia,—such letters may be posted up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received; but they must be registered, and fully prepaid, and addressed to the 'care of the commander of the packet.'

LETTERS BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Letters intended to be sent by private ship must be addressed 'By Private Ship;' and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a private ship is the same as by mail packet.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where letters and book packets may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than £1, and that the letters and book packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

Letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

To some foreign countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, and to a few countries there is no arrangement for registration.

No letter or postal packet addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless addressed to the care of a person or firm. Every article presented for registration should be enclosed in a strong cover securely fastened.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If an article marked 'registered' be dropped into the letter-box, directed to any place in the United Kingdom, it will be liable to a registration fee of 8d., instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.; and if posted containing coin, watches, or jewellery without being registered, will be treated in like manner.

Letters containing coin for any of the British colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if posted unregistered, they are treated as inland letters under similar circumstances.

Letters containing coin, jewellery, or precious articles, cannot be accepted for registration to many of the countries in the Postal Union; nor can a letter with the declared value of its contents marked outside.

The sender of an inland registered letter or packet may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery by paying at the time of posting an additional fee of 2d., and filling up the necessary form, and should a like acknowledgment be desired for a letter addressed to a foreign country or British colony in the Postal Union, a fee of 2½d. is required.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and at the sub-offices fifteen minutes, before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each despatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, as it can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered, valuable articles are exposed to risk.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

The Postmaster-General will (not in consequence of any legal liability, but voluntarily, and as an act of grace), subject to the rules for the time being, give compensation up to a maximum limit of £50 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds upon prepayment of a fee in addition to the postage. This fee either consists of or includes in each case the ordinary registration fee of 2d.; and the scale of fees, and the respective limits of compensation are as follow:—

Registration Fee.	2d.	3d.	4d.	5d.	6d.	7d.	8d.	9d.	10d.	11d.
Limit of Compensation.	£ 5	£ 10	£ 15	£ 20	£ 25	£ 30	£ 35	£ 40	£ 45	£ 50

RULES.

Posting and Packing.

The postal packet must be posted in accordance with the rules for the time being, and a certificate of posting, bearing thereon an acknowledgment that the fee for registration and compensation has been paid, must be obtained.

The contents of the postal packet must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover, and if it be desired to secure compensation for damage to a postal packet (other than a parcel), such postal packet must bear the words 'Fragile, with Care,' on the face of the cover above the address.

The packet must be marked with the word 'Registered,' and with the amount of the fee proper to the value up to which the sender desires to secure compensation, thus:—

Registered, 2d.; Registered, 3d.; and so on.

The registered Parcel Post will be available for watches and jewellery. Money may also be sent in a registered parcel, but no compensation will be given in respect of the loss or damage of such parcel or of any of its contents.

General Conditions.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a postal packet containing any article which may not under the regulations in force for the time being be lawfully sent by the post by which it is in fact sent; or a packet (other than a letter) containing any money; or a letter containing any money, unless it be enclosed in a registered letter envelope provided by the Postmaster-General, and—

- (a) If containing coin, unless the coins are packed and enclosed in such a way as to move about as little as possible.
- (b) If containing any bank note, unless the name of the bank of issue, and number and amount, and (where necessary) the date of the note be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.
- (c) If containing any postal order, unless the amount and number of such order be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.
- (d) If containing any bill of exchange, bond, coupon, or other order or authority for the payment of money or security for money, unless particulars sufficient to identify the document be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.

The compensation given in respect of the loss or damage of coin shall not in the case of any letter exceed the sum of £2 whatever be the amount of coin contained in such letter.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a postal packet containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid; or containing any article of an exceptionally fragile character, or any other article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post; or containing a perishable article where the damage arises from natural decay, and the postal packet is delivered without undue delay; or (other than a parcel) which is not marked 'Fragile, with Care.'

But in all such cases compensation will be given for the loss of the postal packet or of any article contained therein.

Where a postal packet (other than a parcel) is marked 'Fragile, with Care,' the Postmaster-General reserves the right to select for such postal packet a route on which postal packets are neither received by nor delivered from trains in motion.

In every case it must appear that the loss or damage did not arise wholly or in part by the fault of the sender, and that it occurred while the postal packet was in the post.

The compensation given will in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained.

Compensation for damage will be strictly in accordance with the fee paid and the amount of damage done, no matter what the original total value of the contents may have been.

The Postmaster-General will in every case either of loss or damage, if he thinks fit, reinstate the contents of a postal packet instead of giving pecuniary compensation.

Where compensation is given for the loss of a postal packet, or of any article contained in a postal packet, the Postmaster-General will reserve the right to retain and dispose as he thinks fit of the postal packet or of the missing article, in case it should subsequently come into his hands.

In no case will the Postmaster-General give compensation for injury or damage consequential upon the loss, damage, or delay of a postal packet or any article contained therein.

Without prejudice to any of the preceding rules, the Postmaster-General will, if he thinks fit, refuse to give compensation for loss or damage on any ground on which a common carrier might in like case claim exemption from legal liability.

Claims for Compensation.

Every application for compensation should be made within seven days after the date on which the postal packet was posted, and the certificate of posting should be produced when required.

Where the application relates to the damage of the packet, or to the damage or loss of any article contained therein, the packet should be retained for inspection as nearly as possible in the state in which it was delivered. When the complaint is that the contents have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application.

Where a postal packet when delivered bears signs of injury, the recipient should call attention to the fact of such injury at the time of delivery, and, if possible, open the postal packet in the presence of an officer of the Post Office.

The compensation payable in respect of a registered parcel will be in substitution for and not in addition to any compensation which would have been payable in case the parcel had not been registered.

The scheme of registration and compensation does not apply to Foreign and Colonial registered postal packets.

The several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of the enclosure of any such letter.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen can do so on their walks.

Inland Parcels.—For a parcel which is not registered the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2, without payment of any fee, provided that the parcel is posted in the manner prescribed for the posting of parcels by the regulations for the time being, and a certificate of posting is obtained from the officer receiving the parcel, and produced when required. The certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to the officer, who will sign and return it to him. The parcel must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a parcel containing anything which may not be sent according to the regulations for the time being, or if containing money, nor of a parcel containing a watch or jewellery, unless registered.

No compensation will be given in respect of a parcel containing eggs, soft fruit, or any article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post.

Parcels for Abroad.—Particulars as to compensation for loss or damage between certain British Colonies, dependencies, and foreign countries can be learned at any Post Office. The rate for insurance between the United Kingdom and certain British Colonies and dependencies is 6d. for every £5 up to £50.

RE-DIRECTION.

No charge is made for the re-direction of letters, book packets, post cards, newspapers, and sample packets, whether registered or not after delivery, provided that the letters are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, but if re-posted later than the day after delivery are charged at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction. But re-directed parcels are not subjected to additional postage if the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office.

A registered letter or packet, when re-directed, should be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter.

The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, etc., for a person temporarily leaving his home, unless the house be left uninhabited, or of letters, etc., addressed to hotels, boarding-houses, or lodgings.

Colonial and Foreign.—Letters addressed to this country from places abroad and re-directed here either to a fresh address in this country or to another country, and also inland letters re-directed to an address abroad, are sent forward without any charge for re-direction; but if not prepaid in the first instance a postage which will have sufficed for their transmission from the first to the second address, they are charged the deficient postage.

Letters for commissioned officers in the army or navy, on actual service, are exempt from any charge for re-direction, and also to the usual regulations as to time of repositing.

Notices of removal and applications for letters, etc., to be re-directed must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the local office and the General Post Office, or from the postman. A separate notice must be filled up for parcels. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3 per annum; and if for a private bag, £1 additional; and if for parcels, an additional fee; and for combined private box and delivery, £3; for delivery from one address to another (removal excepted), 2s.; and for private delivery of registered letters only, a fee of 5s.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of postage stamps which have been cut, torn, or otherwise rendered imperfect; or of embossed or impressed stamps, cut out from the envelopes, cards, or wrappers on which such were embossed or impressed.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the charges are as follows: For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value, $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; 3s. 4d., 1d.; 5s., $1\frac{1}{2}$ d.; 6s. 8d., 2d.; 8s. 4d., $2\frac{1}{2}$ d., and so on. No separate stamps can be purchased, or less than two adhering to each other.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the department recommend that the name or initials of firms, etc., be perforated through the stamps. Postmasters are instructed not to purchase such stamps.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or other article, or any article having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, nor can any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, any living creature, or anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office. The sender of any such packet is liable to prosecution.

The transmission by letter post of gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, etc., to many countries in the Postal Union is, as a rule, prohibited (such articles may, however, be sent to some foreign countries); and to Cape of Good Hope, Italy, Servia, and United States of America—anything relating to foreign lotteries.

In the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, and Queensland—jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain and Victoria—jewellery is dutiable and liable to confiscation.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand it; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———.'

To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

Letters which cannot be delivered are kept from one to three days, according to circumstances, before being returned, unless addressed 'to be called for,' when they are retained one month, and if addressed to a ship, two months before being returned.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money Orders are issued and paid at General Post Office, from 10 to 4; Saturdays, 10 to 1; at Branch and Sub Offices, 8 to 8.

When applying for Money Orders, the public should use the printed 'Application Forms,' which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

	Not exceeding £1 . . .	2d.
For sums above £1 . . .	2 . . .	3d.
" " 2 . . .	4 . . .	4d.
" " 4 . . .	7 . . .	5d.
" " 7 . . .	10 . . .	6d.

No Money Order can be issued, unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname, and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, and the remitter's address.

In the case of Foreign Orders, the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India, the tribe or caste and the father's name must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. The remitter of an Inland Order may direct, at the time of issue, that

and thus be payable only through a bank. In that case he may give or withhold the name of the payee. The designation of the bank need not be furnished.

2nd. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient.

3rd. The usual designation of a firm, as well as the ordinary title of any company, corporation, or society, is sufficient, either as remitter or payee.

The holder of an inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that it be paid through a bank, even although not originally intended.

When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid; otherwise it can be drawn only upon the Head Office. It is not incumbent on a postmaster to supply such information relative to local or provincial offices.

An order once issued cannot be cancelled.

The remitter of an order has full control over the money until payment has been made. He may make his order payable ten days after date, provided that, in the presence of the postmaster, when he obtains the order, he affixes thereto, in the space after the request C., a penny receipt stamp, and write his signature across the stamp.

If, when an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), it is properly signed, and the party presenting it can give the name of the remitter, it will be paid, unless the postmaster has good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by the payee. When an order is presented through a bank, crossed with the name of the bank by some person known to be in the employment of the bank, the usual formalities on presentation are dispensed with. In the case of a money order payable to any company, corporation, or society, the money order must be stamped in the receipt space with the name of the company mentioned in the advice as the payee, and be presented by an individual known to be authorised to receive monies on behalf of such company. In cases where no stamp is used, the individual must receipt the money order by writing the name of the company and also his own name.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the office is not liable to any further claim.

To guard against fraud, the remitter is recommended—

1. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.
2. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.
3. When it is not considered expedient to adopt either of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order.

Payment of an order cannot be made on the same day on which it is issued.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate is granted on a written application giving particulars to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued; but for an order otherwise lost, a charge of 1s. for sums not exceeding £5, and 2s. for sums not exceeding £10 is made for a duplicate order. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, application must be made at the office where the order is payable, and a second commission in postage stamps enclosed. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application must be made by the remitter to the postmaster of the office at which the order was issued, accompanied with a second commission. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant, and imposed on the officer in fault.

A postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, etc., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order, not corresponding with the entries in the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing postmaster.

Money Orders for amounts not exceeding £50 are issued, free of charge, in favour of 'The Receiver-General of Inland Revenue,' when required for the remittance of Income Tax, Inhabited House Duty, Land Tax, or Excise Duties, or Legacy and Succession Duties. The official notice to pay must, in each case, be presented for inspection when the order is applied for.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order between all Offices authorized to transact Telegraph and Money Order business, with the exception that at those Offices which forward but do not deliver Telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued but not paid.

The commission is double that of the ordinary rates.

No Telegraph Money Order can be issued for more than £10.

In addition to the commission, a charge is made at the ordinary inland rate for the official telegram authorizing payment at the office of payment, and for the repetition thereof, the minimum being 9d. The telegraph charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the postmaster of the office of payment, and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee with regard to the order must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate.

Any person expecting a remittance by Telegraph must produce satisfactory evidence that he is the person entitled to receive the money.

Should repayment of a Telegraph Money Order be required, the remitter must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, G.P.O., London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, as the case may be, enclosing the receipt. A new order will then be issued, less the ordinary commission, payable at any Money Order Office named for the purpose.

In other respects, Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary Money Orders.

Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the undermentioned British Colonies and foreign countries, at the following rates for sums not exceeding:—

New Guinea, Japan, Luxemburg, Norway, Portugal, Roumania, Salvador, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunis, Uruguay, India, and the towns of Adrianople, Beyrout, and Salonica, the original order should be retained by the remitter, a new order in the currency of the country of payment being issued by the Chief Office of that country, and sent to the payee.

In the case of British Bechnanaland, Canada, Constantinople, France, etc., Hawaii, Italy, etc., N. Borneo, the Orange Free State, Sarawak, Transvaal, the United States, Panama, Smyrna, Tangier, and the British Possessions and Colonies generally, India excepted, the order should be sent to the payee by the remitter.

The issue of a duplicate order, or the stoppage of payment of an order issued by a colony or foreign country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission of 1s. for sums not exceeding £5, and 2s. for sums above £5 and not exceeding £10 be enclosed. For stoppage of payment an additional commission at the ordinary inland rates. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial and foreign orders originally drawn on their own offices.

Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Austria, Bulgaria, Belgium, Congo Free State, Denmark, Danish West Indies, the Dutch East Indian Possessions, Egypt, France, Hawaii, Holland, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Luxemburg, Norway, Orange Free State, the Ottoman Towns of Adrianople, Beyrout, and Salonica, Portugal, Roumania, Sarawak, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunis, United States, and the British Colonies and Possessions, are payable for twelve months after the month of issue, but Orders for Chili are payable for six months only after issue. Orders issued on the German Empire and India are subject to the regulations which govern the payment of Money Orders in those countries.

Orders for the British Colonies and other possessions abroad, excepting Canada and India, are drawn in Sterling, but in those Colonies where the local currency is other than Sterling, payments may be made to the nearest equivalent in the legal currency of the place.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders are issued at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, at the British Post Office at Constantinople, and in Malta, Gibraltar, India, Straits Settlements, Hong Kong, and Newfoundland. Such Postal Orders are paid at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and at the British Post Office, Constantinople. Payment is also made in Malta and Gibraltar, provided the orders were issued in the United Kingdom, or at the British Post Office, Constantinople.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

1s. or 1s. 6d.,	½d. each.
2s., 2s. 6d., 3s., 3s. 6d., 4s., 4s. 6d.
5s., 7s. 6d., 10s., or 10s. 6d.,	1d. each.
15s. or 20s.,	1½d. each.

Broken amounts may be made up by affixing postage stamps not exceeding 5d. to the face of the order.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should keep a record of the number, date, and office issued to facilitate inquiry in case of loss.

If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a banker, and if the name of the banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker, and no Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by the banker, unless the name of the payee be inserted in the body of the order.

The holder of a Postal Order may, in writing on the face thereof, direct that payment be deferred for any period not exceeding 10 days, but in such case the name of the Money Order Office at which the Order shall be paid must be inserted in the body.

A Postal Order presented by or through a banker for payment will not (in the absence of express arrangement between such banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such order has been examined at the Chief Office in London.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

A postmaster may require the person presenting an order to sign his name on the back before payment, although the receipt has already been signed.

After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a commission equal to the original poundage, and an additional poundage will be charged for every period of three months, or portion thereof; and the commission thus paid must be affixed in postage stamps on the back of the order.

Postal Order business is transacted during the hours at which postage stamps can be purchased.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices, and are open for bank business during the same hours as for money orders.

Deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings, may be made, but no one may deposit more than £50 in one year ending 31st December, and £200 in all, inclusive of interest. Subject to the limit of £200, a depositor may besides depositing £50 in the year, deposit any year ending 31st December one sum or several sums for the purpose of replacing the whole or in part the amount of any one withdrawal previously made in the same year.

In addition, deposits will be received for immediate investment in Government Stock, and in connection with Government Insurance and Annuity Cheques are accepted as Savings Bank deposits.

Every deposit must be entered at the time the depositor's book by the person receiving it, who will also sign and date stamp the entry. The depositor should carefully examine his book before leaving the office, and see that the entry is correct.

In addition to the receipt in the book, the depositor will receive an acknowledgment by post from the Savings Bank Department, London.

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions for deposit, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a Penny Postage Stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office.

Interest at the rate of £2, 10s. per cent. per annum is allowed until the sum amounts to £200. When the balance due in an ordinary account, inclusive of accumulated interest and dividend, exceeds £200, interest on £200 only is allowed. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which the complete pound shall have been deposited up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued; and after 31st December the interest is added to the principal.

Deposits may be made—

- (A.) By persons of full age, and not under legal disability.
- (B.) By married women.
- (C.) By children 7 years old and upwards.
- (D.) On behalf and in the names of children under 7 years old. In this case the money is not repayable until the children attain the age of 7.
- (E.) On behalf and in the names of insane persons by those appointed to represent them.
- (F.) By two persons jointly on their own behalf. In this case neither person must have any other account in a Savings Bank, and the signature of both persons will be required to a notice of withdrawal.
- (G.) By one person as trustee for another person, also named in the account. The signatures of both persons will be required to a notice of withdrawal. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.
- (H.) By a duly registered friendly society, through its trustees. In this case deposits may be made without limit.
- (I.) By a duly-registered Industrial and Provident Society, not chargeable with Income Tax. In this case deposits may be made without limit.
- (J.) By a charitable or provident society, penny bank, or similar institution, through the trustees or treasurer. In this case deposits may be made to the extent of £100 in any one year, and £300 in the whole, and if the consent of the National Debt Commissioners be obtained, without limit.
- (K.) By societies, limited companies, and other corporations not coming under (H), (I), or (J). In these cases the ordinary limits apply.
- (L.) By vicars and rectors of parishes and other official persons, being corporations sole, in their official titles. In these cases the ordinary limits apply.

Societies wishing to deposit under (H), (I), and (J), must first apply for authority to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, sending a copy of their rules in the case of a society or other institution.

- (M.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Under the 70th section of the County Courts Act, 51 and 52 Vict. cap. 43, 'trust moneys' not in excess of £500 may be thus deposited; and under the 71st section, money paid into a County Court in 'equitable proceedings' may be deposited by the Registrar without restriction as to amount.

All deposits standing in the sole name of a married woman domiciled in England or Ireland, will be deemed, unless and until the contrary is shown, to be the separate property of such married woman; and the fact that any deposit is standing in the sole name of a married woman, will be considered prima facie evidence that she is entitled to withdraw and receive the same, without the concurrence of her husband.

Payment of deposits by a married woman domiciled in Scotland, will take place subject to the provisions of the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1877, and the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1881.

Any woman who marries while she is a depositor, should forward to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department a certificate of her marriage, together with her deposit book, and the deposits will thereupon be entered in her married name.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the depositor should forward the deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of the department, and the interest due to the depositor inserted in it.

No charge is made for the book at first supplied to a depositor, or for books issued in continuation thereof; but if any depositor shall lose his book, and shall desire a new book, he must apply by letter to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, enclosing postage stamps or a Postal Order of the value of 1s. to pay for the new book. Notice of the loss of a book should immediately be given to the Controller.

When a depositor wishes to make a withdrawal from his account, he should fill up and forward to the Savings Bank Department a notice of withdrawal, which he can obtain at any Post Office Savings Bank. He will then receive by post a warrant, which he should present together with his book at the Post Office where payment is to be made.

Payment of a warrant is made only to the person named therein, or to the bearer of an order under his hand, signed in the presence of any officer of the Post Office other than the paying officer, a minister of any religious denomination, a Justice of the Peace, or, in case of sickness, the medical attendant.

Where the person to whom a warrant is made payable cannot write, he must, when he presents the warrant for payment, affix his mark to the receipt at the foot of the warrant in the presence of some person who is known to the paying officer, and who can identify the person applying for the money as the person named in the warrant.

Postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Banks Act.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK.

A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Consolidated Two and Three Quarters (1903), Two and Three Quarters (1905), in Two and a Half per cent., or in Local Loans Three per cent. Stock.

Within seven days from the receipt of such application the depositor's account will be charged with the current price of the Stock purchased and the commission, the necessary entries being made in his deposit book; and the depositor will be credited in the Government Stock Register of the Post Office Savings Bank with the equivalent amount of Stock, and a certificate sent him.

The minimum amount of Stock which may be purchased or sold is one shilling, and not more than £200 Stock can be credited to an account in any year ending 31st December, or £500 Stock in all.

For an immediate investment in Government Stock a deposit to an amount not exceeding the value of £200 Stock with the commission may be made in one year ending the 31st December.

Dividends in respect of Stock standing to a depositor's credit will be carried to his deposit account.

A depositor who desires to sell the Stock standing to his credit, or part of the Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, London, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form obtainable at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Within seven days of the receipt of such application the sale will be effected at the current price of the day of sale, and a warrant will be sent the depositor for the amount realized, less commission.

The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is 9d. for the first £25, and 6d. for every additional £25.

Particulars regarding Stock certificates may be learned at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY.

Any person between 14 and 65 years of age may insure his or her life for not less than £5 or more than £100. The lives of children between 8 and 14 years of age may be insured for £5.

If the amount of the annuity or insurance purchased is less than £100, further annuities and insurance may be purchased from time to time until the total amount is £100.

Immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

Forms of proposal for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Persons proposing to insure their lives or purchase annuities, must furnish a statement, giving full particulars of their age, upon a form which will be supplied by the Postmaster with the form of proposal.

If such statement can be verified by the Registrar-General, London, no further evidence of age will be required, but if not, proposers must provide, at their own cost, such certificates of birth or baptism, or other evidence of age, as shall be required of them.

When the age has once been proved, further contracts are granted without requiring any further evidence of age.

The premiums will be payable through the medium of Savings Bank deposit accounts, and will be accepted in addition to ordinary deposits and deposits for immediate investment in Government Stock.

An annuity or insurance contract is issued on payment of the purchase money if a single payment, or of the first annual premium in full. Provision can be made for the payment of premiums by increasing the money in the Bank by deposits of not less than 1s. at any Post Office Savings Bank, and by the use of the penny postage stamp slips, the provision can be made in sums of 1d. at a time.

So long as there is a sufficient sum standing to the credit of the deposit account, each premium will be deducted therefrom as it becomes due without the depositor being troubled in the matter and notice will be sent as evidence that the premium has been paid. If the balance in the account is insufficient to cover any premium due the depositor will be informed accordingly, in order that he may make a deposit, which may be done at any Post Office Savings Bank. If desired the premiums can be transferred from the account of any person other than the annuitant or insured with the consent in writing of the depositor.

INSURANCES.

The following examples show various ways in which insurances may be effected:—

The life of a male or female between 21 and 28 years of age may be insured for £10—

By an annual payment throughout life
of	£0 4
By an annual payment to the age of 60
of	0 4
By a single payment of	4 4

A sum of money may be insured on the attainment of the age of 60 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single or annual premium, and a sum of money may be insured at the expiration of 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, or 40 years or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single premium according to the age of the insured person.

Insurances for sums not exceeding £25 will be granted without a medical examination, upon production of satisfactory evidence as to health; but in such cases, if the insured should die before the second premium becomes payable, the amount of the first premium, and no more, will be paid to his representatives; and if he should die after the payment of the second premium and before the third premium becomes payable, half the amount insured, and no more, will be paid to his representatives. In either of these cases, however, it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the death of the insured person was caused by accident, the full amount insured will be paid. In any case, immediately after the payment of the third premium, the insured person is entitled to the full benefit of insurance.

Persons proposing to insure for more than £25 must undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner appointed by the Postmaster-General, the cost of which is paid by the department. And persons proposing to insure for sums not exceeding £25 may undergo a medical examination, if they so desire, by payment of a fee of 2s. 6d. to the medical examiner. In all cases of insurance granted after medical examination, the insured person is entitled to the full benefit of insurance immediately the policy is granted.

No one life can be insured for less than £5, and no insurance above £5 will be granted to persons under 15 years of age.

If, after having paid not less than two annual premiums, an insured should be unable to continue or should desire to discontinue the payments, such sum of money as the National Debt Commissioners shall determine to be the surrender value will be returned.

Permission is granted to persons over 30 years of age, who have been insured 5 years, to reside in any part of the world free of any extra premium.

ANNUITIES.

The following examples show various ways in which different kinds of annuities may be obtained. When the condition of the contract is to be that no part of the purchase money shall, in any event, be returned:—

A male aged 24 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on his reaching the age of 54, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until he reaches the age of 54 of . . .	£0 4 4
Or by an immediate payment of . . .	3 19 10
A female aged 24 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on her reaching the age of 54, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until she reaches the age of 54 of . . .	0 5 4
Or by an immediate payment of . . .	5 3 2

Although in the case of annuities granted under the non-returnable scale no part of the purchase money paid can be returned, yet if the annuity is being purchased by annual instalments, and the purchaser is unable to keep up the payments to the end of the period for which the annuity is deferred, the money paid is not lost, as an exchange contract can be granted for such an amount of annuity, to commence at the time fixed in the original contract, as the payments made may justify.

When the condition of the contract is to be that, in the event of the death of the person on whose life the annuity is to depend before the commencement of the annuity, the purchase money is to be returned to his representatives; and that if the purchaser at any time before the commencement of the annuity is unable to continue or wishes to discontinue the purchase, the purchase money shall be returned:—

A male aged 10 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on his reaching the age of 50, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until he reaches the age of 50 of . . .	£0 4 4
Or by an immediate payment of . . .	5 11 9
A female aged 24 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on her reaching the age of 60, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until she reaches the age of 60 of . . .	0 4 4
Or by an immediate payment of . . .	5 4 11
A male aged 65 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for . . .	9 13 4
A male aged 30 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for . . .	20 9 1
A female aged 45 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for . . .	18 6 9
A female aged 25 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for . . .	23 15 0

Any two persons may purchase an immediate annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d. for twelve words, and 3d. for every additional word. The names and addresses of the sender and receiver being counted.

Telegrams in plain language, in any European tongue or in Latin, are charged for according to the number of words; but all words, not forming part of any European language or of Latin, are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered at a charge of 2d. per copy in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission covers the cost of delivery within one mile, or within the town postal delivery of that office if more than a mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free only within the limit of one mile.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile, or any part thereof, provided the whole distance does not exceed three miles; but the charge is calculated from the boundary within which no portage is levied.

If the address is more than 3 miles from the terminal office, portage is charged for by mounted messenger at the rate of 1s. per mile, except in Ireland, where the charge is usually 8d. per mile, the charge being reckoned from the office.

The sender is responsible for all charges incurred in delivery. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid beyond the free delivery.

If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words 'by post' or 'by train' at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost, or deposit 1s. if the cost is not known. If the telegram is to be posted to a place abroad, he must write 'Post —' at the end of the address, and prepay the postage.

A deposit for boat hire is required upon all telegrams addressed to a ship, unless the ship be alongside a wharf; any surplus is refunded.

Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, by being signalled back from office to office, but no copy is given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff; a fraction of a halfpenny being reckoned as a halfpenny.

The sender should furnish his address, to enable the Department to communicate with him if necessary. When not telegraphed, it should be written on the back of the form.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission. Should it be found that the telegram has been incorrectly transmitted, the amount paid will be refunded, or the receiver may have part of it repeated under the same conditions, but the minimum charge is 3d.

The cost of a reply to a telegram, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within two months. If the Form be not used, it may within the same period be sent to the Secretary, G.P.O., and the value will be refunded to the sender. A Reply Form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay any message.

Telegrams re-directed to a second address are liable, if any additional service is performed, to an additional charge of 6d. if the two addresses are within the same town, but if the addresses are in different towns the full inland rate is charged. Removals are registered free for one month when this is especially requested; and instructions for the re-direction of Telegrams at hours when the place of business is closed are registered on payment of £1, 1s. per annum; but in both these cases the telegrams are subject to the usual charges for re-direction and portage.

Persons not wishing to send to a telegraph office may post a telegram, addressed 'Telegram—Immediate,' in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a sub-post office. Telegrams may also be posted not enclosed in covers. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest telegraph office by the next collection. The period of arrival at the postal telegraph office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

Telegrams posted insufficiently prepaid are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

No combination of words is counted as one word, with the exception of those which are ordinarily coupled by hyphens, such as 'mother-in-law,' 'non-delivery,' 'fifty-one,' etc.

Compound words such as MacDonald, midday, midnight, noon-day, se'nnight, cannot, to-day, to-night, to-morrow, yesternight, yesterday, half-penny, twopence, St Andrews, etc., are charged for as single words.

Figures are counted at the rate of five to a word; and in fractions according to the number of figures employed, one figure being counted for the mark of division,—thus $\frac{1}{2}$ is one word, and $24\frac{1}{2}$ two words. In groups of figures a stop or oblique stroke is counted as a figure.

The symbols a/o, a/c, b/l, and c/o are each counted as a word.

Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal, with the addition of one word for the affix st, nd, rd, th.

When a group of figures is followed or preceded by a letter, thus 123*a*, the letter is counted as a word.

When words are underlined, or placed in a parenthesis, or within inverted commas, two extra words are charged for; and when the sender desires that special instructions be written on the envelope enclosing the telegram, such as 'private,' 'to be opened in absence,' and the like, he must write the necessary instructions immediately after the address of the receiver, and such is charged for as part of the message.

Telegrams addressed to a Telegraph Office to be called for are kept for two days, and if not then claimed are sent to the Chief Office, London.

Any person may register an abbreviated address on payment of the fee of 21s. a-year. The address must consist of two words, one of which is the name of the town or place of delivery.

Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open longer; and at various offices in London and in the country the attendance is continuous.

G.P.O., EDINBURGH, ALWAYS OPEN.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Foreign telegrams are divided into two kinds—telegrams in plain language and telegrams in secret language. Those in plain language are composed of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning. Those in secret language are divided into two classes, viz. code and cypher.

Code telegrams are those composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names are not allowed in the text of code telegrams, except in their natural sense; words of more than ten letters are not allowed. Only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin may be employed; but words of any or all of these languages are allowed in the same telegram.

Cypher telegrams are those containing series or groups of figures having a secret meaning. Telegrams consisting of groups of letters are not accepted, but groups of letters denoting trade marks are allowed, and charged for as figures.

The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than two words, a name and town. Example: Hercules, Bombay.

The address of the sender is charged for, if transmitted; in any case, it must be written at the foot of the form.

In telegrams written in plain language, intended for places within the European system, the length allowed for a word is 15 letters, in extra-European telegrams 10 letters; any additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word.

Every separate letter or figure is charged for as a word. In European telegrams, every group of five figures or letters is counted as a word, larger groups being counted at the rate of five to a word, plus one word for any excess. In Extra-European telegrams, groups of figures are counted at the rate of three to a word, plus one word for any excess. Bars of division, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers are counted as figures.

Ordinary compound words and names written without break are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe or other sign of punctuation, they are counted as so many separate words. Compound numbers written in words and without break are also counted as single words, and limited as in the case of letters. The name of the place and country of designation in the addresses of telegrams are charged for as one word each, when so written by the sender, whatever their length.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered, if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge, all the names and addresses are included; but telegrams of this kind are not accepted for America.

Telegrams may be sent from one place to another abroad by post. If the telegram be intended for delivery in the same country no charge for postage is made, unless in the case of China and Japan. If intended for delivery in another country and has to be forwarded over sea, a charge for postage is collected; and if the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter a fee of 5d. is collected from the sender.

STAMP DUTIES.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties [including Patent Medicine Duties], according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January 1892, and except where otherwise mentioned, the sections referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. The duties on certain instruments under the Conveyancing Act, 1874, are given above. The exemptions which remain in force under other Acts are also given. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4). [Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British stamp duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30 § 3 (7), (a).]

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instrument relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

Bank Notes may be re-issued.—§ 30. A bank note issued duly stamped, or issued unstamped by a banker duly licensed, or otherwise authorized to issue unstamped bank notes, may be from time to time re-issued without being liable to any stamp duty by reason of the re-issuing.

(b.) An order for the payment of any sum of money weekly, monthly, or at any other stated periods, and also an order for the payment by any person at any time after the date thereof of any sum of money, and sent or delivered by the person making the same to the person by whom the payment is to be made, and not to the person to whom the payment is to be made, or to any person on his behalf.

(b.) If at the time when any such bill or note comes into the hands of any bona fide holder there is affixed thereto an adhesive stamp not duly cancelled, it shall be competent for the holder to cancel the stamp as if he were the person by whom it was affixed, and upon his so doing the bill or note shall be deemed duly

Proviso as to the fixed duty.—(2.) Provided that if any such bill of exchange, payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation, is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented may affix thereto an adhesive stamp of one penny, and cancel the same as if he had been the drawer of the bill, and may thereupon pay the sum in the bill mentioned, and charge the duty in account against the person by whom the bill was drawn, or deduct the duty from the said sum, and the bill is, so far as respects the duty, to be deemed valid and available.

(b.) If lodged for adjudication, it may be stamped in accordance with the assessment within fourteen days after notice of assessment.

(c.) If instrument not duly stamped in conformity with the foregoing provisions, the person in whose favour the instrument operates, or the settlor, shall incur a fine of £10, and, in addition to the penalty payable by law on stamping the instrument, there shall be paid an additional penalty equivalent to the stamp duty thereon, unless a reasonable excuse for the delay in stamping, or for the omission to stamp, or the insufficiency of stamp, be afforded to the satisfaction of the commissioners, or of the court, judge, arbitrator, or referee before whom it is produced (§ 15 (2.)).

[The personal penalty is to be sued for by information in the Court of Exchequer, in the name of the Lord Advocate, and may be recovered with full costs of suit.

The Board of Inland Revenue are empowered to reward any person who may inform them of any case in which the personal penalty has been incurred, or who may assist in the recovery of such penalty.—Board's Notice, May 1888.]

Subject to such regulations as the commissioners may think proper to make, and to the production of such evidence by statutory declaration or otherwise, as the commissioners may require, allowance is to be made by the commissioners for stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned (that is to say)—

- (1.) The stamp on any material inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before the material bears the signature of any person or any instrument written thereon is executed by any party:
- (2.) Any adhesive stamp which has been inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use, and has not in the opinion of the commissioners been affixed to any material:
- (3.) Any adhesive stamp representing a fee capable of being collected by means of such stamp which has been affixed to material, provided that a certificate from the proper officer is produced to the effect that the stamp should be allowed.

- (5.) The stamp on any promissory note signed by or on behalf of the maker which has not been made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands:

- (6.) The stamp on any bill of exchange or promissory note which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been accepted or indorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another complete and duly stamped bill of exchange or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of the error or omission, with the spoiled bill or note:
 - (7.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments; that is to say—
 - (a.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void from the beginning:
 - (b.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended:
 - (c.) - Provided as follows:—
- (a.) That the application for relief is made within six months after the stamp has been spoiled or become useless, or in the case of an executed instrument after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, or within such further time as the commissioners may prescribe in the case of an instrument sent abroad for execution, when from unavoidable circumstances an instrument for which another has been substituted cannot be produced within the said period;
 - (b.) That in the case of an executed instrument no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence, and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled;
 - (c.) That in the case of stamps used for medicines or playing cards, the medicines or cards bearing the stamps are produced to the officer and the stamps are removed therefrom in his presence.
- Allowance for Misused Stamps.*—§ 10. Where any person has inadvertently used for an instrument liable to duty a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used a stamp for an instrument not liable to any duty, the commissioners may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if liable to duty, being stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused.

Allowance, how to be made.—§ 11. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps the commissioner may give in lieu thereof other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or in their discretion, the same value in money, deducting therefrom the discount allowed on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 12. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the commissioners may, if they think fit, repay to him the value of the stamp in money, deducting the proper discount, upon his delivering up the stamp to be cancelled, and proving to their satisfaction that it was purchased by him at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person duly appointed to sell and distribute stamps, or duly licensed to deal in stamps, within the period of six months next preceding the application, and with bona fide intention to use it.

ESTATE DUTY,

INCLUDING THE FURTHER OR 'SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY' (57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, Part I.).

Estate duty is payable on the principal value of all property, heritable and moveable, and proceeds of investments thereof, settled and unsettled, which passes on the death of a person dying after 31st August 1894, either immediately or after an interval, or at a period ascertainable by reference

a. The Inland Revenue Office, No. 10 Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every day except Saturday, from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M. (Saturday, 10 to 12). The distributors, most of the sub-distributors of stamps, and certain postmasters, also receive spoiled stamps for allowance.

A supply of forms of affidavit is kept at the Inland Revenue Office, and by the distributors of stamps, and by most of the sub-distributors and certain postmasters; and claimants may attend at the Inland Revenue Office and have the affidavits taken; or they may take the oath before a justice of the peace, and shortly afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If not brought within ten days or a fortnight afterwards the stamp will not be allowed without a fresh affidavit. If the claim be lodged at Edinburgh, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made for information as to the result of such claim after the next Monday, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If the claim be lodged with a distributor, or sub-distributor, or postmaster, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made regarding such claim after a specified date, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If application not made within that time, the claim will be forfeited, and no excuse will be accepted.

The stamps must be presented for allowance within six months after being spoiled. In all cases the stamps must be delivered up to be cancelled.

to death, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation, including all property—

(a.) Of which deceased at his death was competent to dispose;

Note.—A person is deemed competent to dispose of property, if he has such an estate or interest therein, or such general power as would, if he were sui juris, enable him to dispose of the property (including an institute or heir of entail in possession, whether sui juris or not); and the expression 'general power,' includes every power or authority enabling the donee or other holder thereof to appoint or dispose of property as he thinks fit, whether exercisable by instrument inter vivos, or by will, or both, including a general power to charge money on property, but exclusive of any power exercisable in a fiduciary capacity under a disposition not made by himself, or as mortgagee;

(b.) In which deceased or any other person had an interest, ceasing on death of deceased—to extent to which a benefit accrues thereby; except where the interest is as holder of an office or recipient of a charity;

(c.) Taken as donationes mortis causa, or gifts inter vivos made within a year of death, or whenever made if immediate possession and enjoyment has not been assumed by donee, and thenceforth retained to exclusion of donor or benefit to him;

(d.) Which deceased has transferred to himself and any other person jointly, by disposition or otherwise, including a purchase or investment alone, or in concert with another, so that the beneficial interest therein, or in some part thereof, passes by survivorship to such other person;

(e.) Passing under any settlement by deed or instrument not taking effect as a will, whether made for valuable consideration or not between settler and any other person, or any trust in writing or otherwise whereby an interest for life, or other period determinable by reference to death, is reserved expressly or by implication to the settler, or whereby he may have reserved the right, by the exercise of any power, to restore to himself, or to reclaim the absolute interest therein, or in proceeds thereof;

(f.) Proceeds of life policies kept up by deceased for benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or part thereof in proportion to premiums paid by him, where partially kept up;

(g.) Annuities (other than a single annuity not exceeding £25, or the first granted of two or more such), or other interest purchased or provided by deceased alone or in concert with any other, to extent of beneficial interest accruing by survivorship or otherwise on death of deceased;

(h.) 'Property comprised in any special assignment or disposition taking effect on death.'

ENTAILED ESTATE.

Where an entailed estate passes on death of deceased to an institute or heir of entail, not entitled to disentail without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued or dispensed with, settlement estate duty (see p. 914), as well as estate duty, is payable; but neither estate duty nor settlement estate duty is again payable until such estate is disentailed, or until an heir of entail to whom it passes on or subsequent to the death of the institute or heir first mentioned, and who is entitled to disentail with, out obtaining consent or having the consent valued and dispensed with, dies.

An institute or heir of entail in possession of an entailed estate, not entitled to disentail such estate without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued and dispensed with, paying estate duty, and afterwards disentailing, may deduct from the value in money of the expectancy or interest in such estate of the persons whose consents were granted or dispensed with, a proper rateable part of the duty paid by him.

PROPERTY ABROAD.

Charge confined to moveable property, the owner of which dies domiciled in United Kingdom, or to property in which deceased was interested for life, and which was subject of a British trust.

Property in a British Possession—if duty in respect thereof also payable there, a sum equal to the amount may be deducted from the estate duty, provided that in such possession no duty is chargeable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom, or allowance is made of any duty payable in the United Kingdom. This provision applies to such British possessions as are from time to time brought within its scope by order in council.

EXCEPTIONS.

Trust property—not liable if held by deceased for another person under a disposition not made by deceased, or made by him more than a year before death, and possession and enjoyment bonâ fide assumed by beneficiary immediately on creation of trust, and thenceforth retained to entire exclusion of deceased or of benefit to him.

Bonâ fide purchase from person under whose disposition property passes, or determination of an annuity for lives—duty not payable where purchase made or annuity granted for full consideration in money or money's worth to vendor or grantor for his own use or benefit. Where purchase made or annuity granted for partial consideration, value of consideration to be allowed as a deduction from value of property for purpose of duty.

Estate duty not payable on the property of common seamen, marines, or soldiers, dying in Her Majesty's service; nor

On any pension or annuity by Indian Government to widow or child of a deceased officer of such Government.

Treasury may remit duty on art, or scientific collections appearing to them of national, scientific, or historic interest, given for national purposes, or to a university, or county council or municipal corporation.

Where husband or wife entitled, solely or jointly, to income of property settled by the other under a disposition taking effect before 2nd August 1894, and on his or her death survivor becomes entitled to the income of the property settled by such survivor, duty is not payable in respect of that property until the death of the survivor.

Estate duty is not payable on the deceased's death in respect of moveable property settled by a will or disposition made by a person dying before the 2nd August 1894, in respect of which property, inventory, or account duty has been paid, or is payable, unless in either case deceased, at the time of his death, or at any time since the will or disposition took effect, had been competent to dispose of the property.

[See also limitation for liability, next column.]

AGGREGATION—ESTATE BY ITSELF.

All property passing on a death to form one estate, on which duty to be levied at the proper graduated rate on principal value. Property to be aggregated, and duty thereon levied not more than once on the same death. Provided that the property in which deceased never had an interest, or which, under a disposition not made by him, passes immediately on his death to some person other than wife, husband, lineal ancestor or lineal descendant of deceased, is to be an estate by itself on which duty payable at proper graduated rate. But if any benefit under a disposition not made by deceased is reserved or given to wife, husband, lineal ancestor, or lineal descendant of deceased, such benefit to be aggregated for determining rate of duty.

Small estates not exceeding £1000 net.—Where net value of property, heritable and moveable, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by the will of the deceased, does not exceed £1000, such property is not to be aggregated with any other property but is to form an estate by itself.

SETTLED PROPERTY—SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY.

Where property liable to duty is settled by will of deceased, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under it on death of deceased to some person not competent to dispose thereof further duty, called settlement estate duty, payable on the principal value, except where the only life interest in such property after deceased's death is that of the husband or wife of deceased, or where the disposition took effect before 2nd August 1894. Property in which wife or husband of deceased takes an estate of terce or courtesy or other like estate, is to be treated as property settled by will of deceased.

Provided—(a.) Estate duty and settlement estate duty are not payable twice under the same settlement, unless deceased at his death was, or at any time during continuance of settlement had been, competent to dispose of the property;

(b.) Where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property is not deemed to pass on his death;

(c.) Ad valorem stamp duty on settlement may be deducted from settlement estate duty;

(d.) Settlement estate duty not payable where lands or chattels are so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one persons entitled in succession can alienate the same;

(e.) Settled property does not include property held under entail.—See Entailed Estate, supra.

PERSONS LIABLE—HOW PAYABLE—LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

Executor or Intromitter—Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with, or enters upon possession or management of, any personal property wheresoever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in proper Sheriff Court, within six months of death, an inventory (or additional or corrected inventory) of deceased's estate [Forms A, B, & D 1], and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, whether by virtue of any testamentary disposition of deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon, and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Executor is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to specify in appropriate accounts annexed to the inventory (Form A 1) all the property in respect of which duty is payable upon the death of deceased, whether he is or is not accountable for the duty thereon. He shall not be liable for duty in excess of assets received by him, or which, but for his neglect or default, he might have received.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor, or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

A bonâ fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice is not liable for duty.

Limitation for liability.—The various limitations under 52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 12-14, are made applicable to estate duty. After 20 years from the death commissioners may, on application, remit any duty unpaid or interest thereon in whole or in part.

Account.—Duty, so far as not paid by executor, is collected upon an account (Forms C 1, C 2, C 3, and C 4) setting forth the particulars of the property, to be delivered within six months after the death.

VALUE—DEDUCTIONS—REPAYMENT.

The principal value of property is the price which, in the opinion of the commissioners, it would fetch if sold in the open market at the time of deceased's death. The value is to be ascertained by the commissioners in such manner, and by such means, as they think fit. Permission to be given to person authorised by commissioners to inspect property. Where commissioners require valuation to be made by a person named by them, reasonable costs of such to be defrayed by them. Provided that in the case of agricultural property (including agricultural land, pastures, woodland, and such cottages, farm buildings, farm houses, and mansion houses, and such lands occupied herewith, as are appropriate to the property), where no part of the principal value is due to the expectation of an increased income, the principal value shall not exceed twenty-five times the annual value, as assessed under Schedule A of the Income Tax Acts, after making such deductions as have not been allowed in that assessment, and are allowed under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and making a deduction for expenses of management not exceeding 5 per cent. of the annual value so assessed.

Cesser of an interest.—The value of the benefit accruing from the cesser of an interest in property by death of deceased is the principal value of the property, where the interest extended to the whole income of the property; but where it extended to less than the whole income it is the principal value of an addition to the property equal to the income by which the interest extended.

Crown entails.—Lands or chattels, so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one of persons successively entitled can alienate the same,—property passing on death of any person in possession is the interest of his successor, and to be valued as for succession duty.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.—Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage) incurred or created by the deceased bonâ fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use or benefit, and taking effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

An allowance is not made, in the first instance, for debts due from deceased to persons resident out of the United Kingdom (unless contracted to be paid in the United Kingdom, or charged on property situate within the United Kingdom), except out of the value of any personal property of the deceased situate out of United Kingdom on which duty is paid, and no repayment of duty is made in respect of any such debts, except to extent to which the personal property in foreign country or colony where creditor resided is insufficient for payment.

Repayment of duty in respect of such debts, so far as not allowed for in inventory, may be claimed within three years of recording inventory.

Overpayment of duty.—Where commissioners satisfied that too much duty paid, excess to be repaid, and, if overpayment due to overvaluation by commissioners, with interest at 3 per cent.

Foreign property—expenses.—Where commissioners, satisfied that any additional expense in administering or realising foreign property is incurred by reason of its being situate out of the United Kingdom, an allowance for such expense, not exceeding 5 per cent. on the value, is made.

Foreign duties.—Where commissioners satisfied that by reason of deceased's death any duty in respect of foreign property is payable in the country where the property is situate, an allowance of the amount of that duty is made from the value of the property.

INTEREST IN EXPECTANCY.

Where an estate includes an interest in expectancy (including an estate in reversion, and every other future interest, vested or contingent, but not including reversions expectant on the determination of leases), duty in respect of that interest is to be paid, at the option of the person accountable, either with the duty on the rest of the estate, or when the interest falls into possession. If duty not paid with the duty on the rest of the estate, then for the purpose of determining the rate of duty in respect of the rest of the estate, the value of the interest is to be its value at the date of the death of the deceased. The rate of duty upon the interest, when it falls into possession, is to be calculated according to its value at that time, together with the value of the rest of the estate as previously ascertained.

Commutation.—The commissioners, in their discretion, upon application by a person entitled to an interest in expectancy, may commute the duty which would become payable in respect of such interest for a sum to be presently paid, and for determining that sum they shall put a present value upon that duty, regard being had to the contingencies affecting the liability to, and rate and amount of, such duty, and interest being reckoned at 3 per cent.

Bonâ fide sale.—Where an interest in expectancy has, before 2nd August 1894, been bonâ fide sold or mortgaged for full consideration in money or money's worth, no other duty is payable by the purchaser or mortgagee when the interest falls into possession than would have been payable if Act had not been passed, and in the case of a mortgage, any higher duty payable by the mortgagor is to rank as a charge subsequent to that of the mortgagee.

WHEN DUE—ADDITIONAL DUTY—INTEREST.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof, or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear, unless a certificate of discharge delivered.

Interest.—Interest at 3 per cent. per annum on the estate duty is payable from the date of death up to the date of delivery of the inventory or account, or the expiration of six months after the death, whichever first happens, and is to form part of the estate duty.

Small estates.—Interest not charged on fixed duty of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months after death.

Heritable estate.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, less income tax, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Interest on arrears of duty is payable at 4 per cent.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

CHARGE OF DUTY ON PROPERTY—FACILITIES FOR RAISING.

First charge on property.—Rateable part of whole duty, in proportion to value of any property not passing to executor, to be a first charge on property in respect of which duty chargeable—provided that property not to be so chargeable as against bonâ fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice.

Certificate of duty.—On application, submitting description of lands, stocks, funds, &c., and of debts and incumbrances allowed, commissioners shall grant certificate of duty paid in respect of the property, and specify debts and incumbrances allowed, as well as the lands and other property. This is to be conclusive evidence that amount of duty is a first charge on the property, subject to repayment of duty from want of title or existence of any debt for which allowance was not made or from any other cause: Provided such repayer to be made to person producing certificate.

Repayment of duty to executor.—Rateable part of duty, when occasion requires, to be repaid to executor by trustees or owners of property; duty in respect of heritable property may be repaid by the proper instalments, and with proper interest.

Power to raise duty by sale, etc.—Accountable person to have power, whether property vested in him or not, to raise duty, interest, and expense by sale or mortgage of or a terminable charge of that property or any part thereof.

Limited interest in property.—One having such and paying duty in respect of property, to be entitled to the like charge, as if duty in respect of it had been raised by means of a mortgage to him.

Settled property.—Money from sale of settled property, or to be laid out for the purposes of settlement, may be expended in paying duty of property comprised in the settlement and held for the same trust purposes.

Application for order of sale, etc.—Any person paying duty, and in whom the property is not vested, if authorised to raise the duty by sale or mortgage of the property, may apply to Court Session—

(a) For an order of sale, and, if granted, shall provide for payment of duty out of price and for disposal of surplus; court to give directions as to sale, and may order person to whom property vested to grant disposition to purchaser, and if he refuses, may authorise clerk of court to execute such disposition:

(b) For an order ordaining person in whom property vested to grant bond and disposition in security over property in favour of person who paid duty, for the amount, and, if he refuses, clerk of court to execute such bond. Bond to be a first charge on property after any debt or incumbrance for which an allowance to be made under this Act for determining value for duty: Provided that summary diligence not competent thereon, and duty not recoverable under (a) or (b) earlier than if had been recovered by direct action against person ultimately liable for duty.

APPEAL FROM COMMISSIONERS.

Appeal to Court of Session.—Person aggrieved by decision of commissioners respecting payment of excess of duty, or by amount of duty claimed on ground of value, or rate, or otherwise, may, on payment of or giving security for duty claimed, appeal to Court of Session within time, and in manner directed by court; and court shall determine amount of duty, and if duty determined less than that paid, excess shall be repaid.

Appeal from Court of Session not allowed except with leave of Court of Session or House of Lords.

Costs—repayment with interest.—Costs to be at discretion of court, and court may order excess of duty to be repaid with interest at 3 per cent. for such period as seems just.

Repayment with appeal without first making payment.—If satisfied as to hardship, court may allow appeal without payment, or on part payment of duty, and on security for the duty or unpaid portion; but in such case court may order interest at 3 per cent. to be paid on unpaid duty, so far as it becomes payable under decision of court.

Value of property not exceeding £10,000.—Appeal may be to Sheriff Court, to whom, for purposes of appeal, foregoing provisions are to apply.

County Council to appoint valuers for purposes of Act, and to fix charges of remuneration; court may refer questions of disputed value in appeals to their arbitration, the costs to be part of the costs of appeal.

DISCHARGE FROM DUTY.

Certificate of discharge.—(1.) Commissioners, if satisfied that full duty paid, or will be paid, shall, if required, give certificate to that effect, which shall discharge from further claim the property shown on certificate; (2.) Where accountable person two years after death delivers and verifies a statement, to the best of his knowledge and belief, of all property passing on the death of the person entitled thereto, commissioners may determine rate of duty in respect of property for which applicant accountable, and on payment of duty at that rate, that property, and the applicant so far as regards it, to be discharged from further claim for duty, and commissioners to give a certificate of discharge.

Fraud, etc., after disclosure of estate.—Certificate under (1.) or (2.) not to discharge any person or property in case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts, and not to affect rate of duty in respect of property afterwards shown to have passed on death; duty in respect of such property to be at such rate as would be payable if value hereof were added to value of property already accounted for.

Bona fide purchaser.—Provided that certificate purporting to be discharge of whole duty payable in respect of any property included in certificate shall exonerate bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice, from duty, notwithstanding such fraud or failure.

COMPOSITION FOR 'DEATH DUTIES.'

Where from number of deaths on which property assessed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (estate, inventory, temporary estate, legacy, and succession duties), or to do so without undue expense, commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

APPORTIONMENT OF DUTY.

(1.) In case of property not passing to executor, rateable part of duty may be recovered by person who, being so authorised or required, has paid the duty in respect of any property, from the person entitled to any sum charged on such property whether as capital, or an annuity, or otherwise, under a disposition not containing any express provision to the contrary.

(2.) Any dispute as to proportion of duty to be borne by any property or person may be determined, on application by any person interested, in manner directed by rules of Court of Session, or, when amount in dispute is less than £50, by sheriff Court where applicant resides or property situate.

Forms.—All inventories, accounts, certificates, statements, etc., to be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed, and, if so required by commissioners, shall be in duplicate, and accounts and statements shall be delivered and verified on oath and by production of books. (57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 34.)

Deductions.—Deduction is allowed, when claimed, of any annual premium (not exceeding one-sixth part of the claimant's income from every source) paid for insurance, or deferred annuity, on the claimant's own or his wife's life, to any insurance company in existence on 1st November 1844, or registered pursuant to Act 7 and 8 Vict. c. 110; or of any annual payment made under Act of Parliament to a widows' or children's fund.

By 41 Vict. c. 15, § 12, provision is made for deduction for diminished value by wear and tear of machinery or plant used in any trade, manufacture, adventure, etc., the profits or gains of which are chargeable under the rules of schedule D.

By the Act 19 and 20 Vict. c. 80, landlords in Scotland are entitled to relief (either by abatement or by repayment) from any amount of income tax which may be assessed upon them in respect of the annual value of such rates, taxes, assessments, and public burdens, as may be charged upon them and not charged upon landlords in England.

In the case of an assessment on lands (inclusive of the farmhouse and farm buildings), the assessment is to be reduced by one-eighth part; and in the case of houses or buildings distinct from farms, the assessment is to be reduced by one-sixth part, except where the tenant has undertaken to bear the cost of repairs. (57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 35.)

Occupiers of lands for the purposes of husbandry only are entitled, on proof to the satisfaction of the commissioners, to an abatement of duty proportionate to the deficiency of their profits or gains. (14 and 15 Vict. c. 12; 16 and 17 Vict. c. 34, § 46; 43 and 44 Vict. c. 20, § 52.)

Person sustaining loss in any trade or profession carried on by him, either solely or in partnership, or in farming of lands, may, on application to the commissioners through the district surveyor of taxes within six months after the year of assessment, obtain repayment of so much of the Income Tax actually paid on his aggregate income as represents the tax on income equal to his loss. (53 and 54 Vict. c. 8, § 23.)

Membership in Edinburgh is constituted by Payment of an Annual Subscription of 21 Shillings, entitling them, each year, to one Inspection and Report on the Drainage and Water Supply of their Houses, Supervision of Alterations, and reporting upon Tradesmen's Estimates and Accounts.

SANITARY PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

MEDICAL men are united in ascribing much ill-health and loss of life to the insanitary condition of dwelling-houses. No one, therefore, should enter upon even a short occupancy of a house without first obtaining something of the nature of a guarantee that it is in a sanitary condition, and that tenancy of it will not injuriously affect the health of the household.

No such guarantee should be accepted unless it be furnished by competent authority, and based upon a careful examination of the house, and the application of the recognised tests.

Further, no guarantee should be accepted which does not bear a recent date. No single inspection can ensure permanent efficiency, and methodical inspection from time to time is absolutely requisite as a protection against inevitable decay, neglect, and accidental disturbance.

None of the officers of the Association having any pecuniary interest whatever in the work carried out by Members, they can have no object in recommending unnecessary or expensive alterations; while, on the other hand, the Engineers have no necessity to hurry over their inspections, they being paid fixed salaries, quite independently of the number of cases they deal with. The work done is of the best; the Engineers are well-qualified men, and, as far as the present staff is concerned, of considerable experience in the Association's particular work. Therefore it is thought that under no other system are Members likely to have their work more carefully and more economically done.

THE OBJECTS OF THE ASSOCIATION ARE—

1. To provide its members, at moderate cost, with such advice and supervision as shall insure the proper sanitary condition of their own dwellings; and of temporary lodgings in Edinburgh at a single fee.

2. To enable Members to procure practical advice, on moderate terms, as to the best means of remedying defects in houses of the poorer class, in which they are interested. To aid in improving the sanitary condition of the city.

WORK OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The first inspection entails very little disturbance of household arrangements. It is followed by a detailed report, making specific recommendations, if any improvements in the household arrangements are thought necessary. The Members are not bound to carry out these recommendations. The Reports furnished are considered to be strictly confidential.

The Association confines itself to Inspection, Advice, and Supervision; does not execute any work, has no connection with any establishment for Engineering or Plumber work; consequently the advice given is absolutely disinterested.

SUBSCRIPTION.

Membership in EDINBURGH is constituted by an annual payment of £1, 1s. There is no Entrance Fee.

For Rates for DUNDEE, apply to the Local Secretary, Mr. TOSH.

COUNTRY HOUSES.—The Special Rates for the inspection of COUNTRY HOUSES are noted below.

- I. The Fees charged by the Association are based upon a time-rate of £2, 2s. per diem; a day being estimated as of seven hours' duration, for inspecting or reporting.
- II. Travelling and incidental expenses are charged as incurred.
- III. Time spent travelling, and expenses incurred upon journeys when two or more properties are dealt with, are apportioned among the clients interested.

PRIVILEGES OF THE MEMBERS.

EACH Member is entitled to the following privileges in respect of property within the Municipality of Edinburgh:—

1. A Report by the Engineer of the Association on the sanitary condition of one dwelling or property, with specific recommendations, if necessary, as to the improvement of drainage, water-supply, and ventilation.

2. The supervision of any alterations in the sanitary fittings which may be carried out by the advice, or with the approval, of the Officers of the Association, including the checking of Plumbers' and other tradesmen's bills, and of estimates for work recommended by the Engineer of the Association.

3. An Annual Inspection of his premises by the Engineer, with a report each year as to their sanitary condition.

4. Each Member by his Annual Payment secures the above privileges in respect of one dwelling or property occupied or designated by him. Should he be interested in two or more dwellings or properties, he may secure equal privileges in respect to them all by paying the annual subscription in respect of each. If he fail, from any cause, to accept the offer of a second annual inspection, he shall, ipso facto, be liable to pay £2, 2s. (instead of £1, 1s.) for the single inspection made.

5. The Association is also prepared to inspect and report on houses not to be permanently occupied (e.g., apartments temporarily rented), on the application of House Agents, at an increased rate of charge for the Single Inspection and Report.

6. Stables, Lodges, etc., are inspected at a fee of 10s. 6d. additional, when the work can be done, along with the house, at one operation.

GENERAL COUNTY DIRECTORY.

A Letter addressed to the County should bear the word 'Mid-Lothian,'

ESTABLISHED 1826.

EXISTING ASSURANCES, CLAIMS PAID, ACCUMULATED FUNDS,
 £8,290,000. £5,400,000. £3,470,000.

SUMMARY OF ADVANTAGES.

Large Bonus.—The Society being founded on the Mutual principle, all the Profits belong to the Policy-holders themselves, and the amount distributed has been so large that the sums assured by the earlier Policies are now more than doubled. EXAMPLE: A Policy for £1000 effected in 1841 was, at the last Division of Profits, increased to £2066, 7s., and continues to receive further additions.

Low Premiums.—The Minimum-Premium System, introduced by the Society, has long been conspicuous for cheapness, and practically secures the benefit of Life Assurance at Cost Price. EXAMPLE: At age 30, an Annual Premium of £19, 10s. will at once assure on this system £1000, whereas, under the ordinary system, the immediate Policy obtainable for that Premium is only about £750.

General Regulations.—The Society's Regulations as to Immediate Payment of Claims, Non-forfeiture of Policies, Loans to meet Premiums, Surrender Values, Paid-up Assurances, Foreign Residence, etc., are most favourable to the Assured, having all been framed in their interest.

New Policies, with full participation, are entitled to an intermediate Bonus, at the rate of £1, 5s. per cent. for each year after the first completed prior to the next Division of Profits, thus securing the advantages of an Annual Division of Profits.

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, moderate in amount, and in very many cases are repayable by instalments, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £180,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £20,000, which is separately invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK, affords a still further Security.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

BORROWERS will find the Company's arrangements simple and equitable. Parties are assisted in the Purchase of HOUSES or SHOPS for their own occupation.

The Instalments by which Loans are repayable are moderate, and a portion of the sum advanced may lie at interest. No Commission or Fines are charged, and no Assessment is made on Borrowers in name of additional interest dependent on the rise of the Bank Rates.

HITCHCOCK MECHANICAL SAFETY LAMP.

BURNS OPEN LIKE GAS.

Only Perfect Oil Lamp in the World.

NO SMOKE, NO SMELL.

Hundreds of Thousands in Use.

Easiest to Trim. Cleanliest to Handle.

THE HITCHCOCK having no chimney to create and radiate HEAT, is the only Lamp that should be used for Reading, Writing, or Sewing, because with a shade it sheds a cool, soft light down upon your work, and may be placed conveniently near without heating the head and eyes. This peculiarity of the HITCHCOCK—that it does not radiate heat—renders it the most desirable Lamp for the Library, the Study, and the Office, for WARM WEATHER and HOT CLIMATES.

A MARVEL OF USEFULNESS.—Besides being available for use in every room in the house, from the kitchen up to the nursery, and the SAFEST TO CARRY from room to room, it is admirably adapted for Tramway Cars, Omnibuses, Railway Carriages, Railway Stations, Village Street Lamps, Residential Approaches and Gateways, Shooting Lodges, Stable Yards and Outhouses, Camping-out Parties, Picnic Parties, etc. etc. For all Climates, Seasons, and Circumstances, it rises PEERLESS among Lamps, for its usefulness never ends.

Try the HITCHCOCK, and prove whether its Steady Brilliance, Absence of Radiation of Heat, Ease of Management, Safety, and Portability do not make it the most Useful and Economical Lamp you have ever seen.

GALVANISED WIRE TRELLISING,

No. 1.

Made in panels to suit walls. All made and erected by our own workmen. Prices on application.

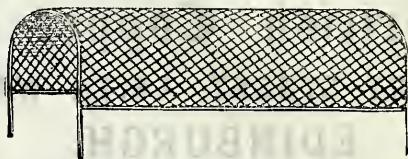

BAIN, YOUNG, & CO. most respectfully draw the attention of their Customers and others to their mode of Galvanised Wire Trellising, for training Creeping or any other kind of Plants on front and side walls of Residences and Gardens, for Fruit Trees, etc., or on any site where the same may be required. The above Trellising has been extensively supplied and erected by them for many years, and has given entire satisfaction to Professors, and other authorities in Horticulture, who recommend it as being the best in use for training Plants, Fruit Trees, etc. The material being light strong enough for the purpose for which it is required, and the Trellising being kept out from the wall, and the heat of the sun being equally dispensed on the Trellising and Plants, produces a wonderful effect, greatly helping the growth and health of the Plants, which speedily cover the wall in a most pleasant manner. From their great experience in this class of work, B. Y. & Co. will be glad to take measurements; or if measurements be sent, prices will be given, thus enabling their Customers to know the entire cost previous to the work being done.
